KoKo was the second heifer we purchased from Bob Loomis. She is a fine example of what a longhorn should look like. She is gentle, but she definitely does not like to be touched. We call her the protector of the herd because when new calves are on the ground, she is ever vigilant against potential threats. A 75+"T2T cow, she out produces herself, and is a great mother. She is a foundation cow, for sure. KoKo has given us a wonderful
